I have had the pleasure of knowing Serina for several years in both a professional and personal capacity. I have over 20 years of experience as a Senior leader in Human Resources, so I believe I am in a good position to judge talent and individuals. In my interactions with Serina she has been consistently organized, efficient, and extremely competent. She has the ability to handle herself professionally with all levels of employees. She excels in her communications and is able to develop an excellent rapport with people of diverse backgrounds.
