

For those in need of assistance with licensing in Clark County, you may want to check out NV Licensing Services. Serina Choi and her staff provide a valuable service for the Southern Nevada area in the preparation, filing and follow up of applications for required regulatory licenses, particularly liquor and gaming, with both the State of Nevada and local jurisdictions. The process through the regulatory maze is sometimes very confusing and time consuming and NV Licensing Services guides applicants through the process efficiently and effectively.

Rob Woodson
VP, Regulatory Compliance
United Coin Machine Co.